DISSOLUTION PROBABLE.

Mr Charles Tupper Summoned Home from London.

(Special to the world.)
OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—The announcement to-day that Sir Charles Tupper, Canada's High Commissioner to London, had been called for to come at once to Canada, gives further confirmation to the report that a crisis was being reached in Ministerial circles at Ottawa and that a dissolution is settled fact. Sir Charles, to whom Sir John Macdonald has always entrusted the negotiations between Canada and the United States on matters of trade or international dispute, has been summoned to New York to-morrow.

It is learned to-night that upon his arrival he will at once call on the President, where he will have a conference with Sir John Macdonald, and then will immediately proceed to Washington to lay before the President the proposals for a conference to be held in Washington by the Governor-General in 1884, and had a long and interesting conversation with Secretary Frelinghuysen on the subject of reciprocity. The administration of which the late Secretary was a member, he said, had not been returned to power, and he was sure that the Republican Government would give effect to a measure of reciprocity which would have been carried out at that time.

Sir Charles has again been intrusted to negotiate with a Republican Government, and it would be a matter of much concern to learn what proposal he has to submit to Washington by the Governor-General in 1884,
and had a long and interesting conversation with Secretary Frelinghuysen on the subject of reciprocity. The administration
